

The Australian Institute of Criminology presents

A MAJOR INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

CRIME IN AUSTRALIA: INTERNATIONAL CONNECTIONS

29 & 30 November 2004, Hilton on the Park, Melbourne

The aim of this two-day conference is to examine existing and emerging forms of criminality, their impact on Australia and the links to transnational crime, as well as policy and practitioner responses. Conference themes will include: illicit drugs, firearms, financial crime and money laundering, cybercrime, maritime crime, people trafficking, crimes against women and children, violent and property crime and environmental crime.

Among the confirmed plenary speakers are:

- Senator the Hon Chris Ellison, Minister for Justice and Customs (TBC)
- Dr Jay Albanese, National Institute of Justice, Washington DC, USA
Organised crime: emerging trends
- Commissioner Mick Keelty, Australian Federal Police
Transnational crime: responding at a strategic level
- Dr Don Weatherburn, Director, NSW Bureau of Crime Statistics and Research
Evidence-based crime control policies: the challenge for governments
- Professor John Braithwaite, Australian National University
Regulatory issues and crime: what do we know and where are we going?
- Mr Neil Jensen, Director, AUSTRAC
Electronic money trails
- Mr Alan Piper, Director-General, Department of Justice, WA
Balancing evidence, policy and political realities
- Ms Margaret Cunneen, Deputy Senior Crown Prosecutor, NSW
Prosecuting sexual assault: the complexities and difficulties
- Dr Andreas Schloenhardt, University of Adelaide, SA
Human rights law and people smuggling
- Professor Arie Freiberg, Monash University
Innovations in the court system
- Mr Robert Cornall, Secretary, Attorney-General's Department
Australia's response to transnational crime in the region

CALL FOR PAPERS

If you would like to present at a concurrent session at this conference, please refer to the AIC website www.aic.gov.au/conferences. Closing date for abstracts is 30 July 2004

Early bird registration is $500.00 (payment received by 29 October 2004)

Full registration is $550.00 (payment received after 29 October 2004)

Conference administration (registration)

Conference Coordinators
PO Box 139
CALWELL ACT 2905

Phone: (02) 6292 9000
Fax: (02) 6292 9002
Email: confco@austarmetro.com.au

Conference program (call for papers)

Marianne James
Australian Institute of Criminology
GPO Box 2944
Canberra City ACT 2601
Phone: (02) 6260 9242
Fax: (02) 6260 9203
Email: Marianne.James@aic.gov.au