

Victims of crime campaigner honoured

25/05/2009 6:37:00 AM

Victims of crime advocate Robyn Holder, who has won a $20,000 ACT Government scholarship, says Australia still has much to learn about justice.

Minister for Women Katy Gallagher announced Ms Holder the winner of the Audrey Fagan postgraduate scholarship yesterday.

Ms Holder is the territory's Victims of Crime coordinator and the prize will allow her to study full-time for a PhD examining how victims of violent crime are treated in the criminal justice system.

Read Robyn Holder's comments in today's Canberra Times